Gospel Singer, Composer, Musician, Recording Artist

Presents her Musical Drama “The Heart of Christmas”

This is a series of short stories and music that starts with the crowded village of Bethlehem and Joseph's frantic search for lodging.

A school teacher finds joy and humor in directing her grade two's efforts in the Christmas Play.

A woman whose family is falling apart finds truth in the words spoken by an under privileged child at a crowded shopping mall.

What was the phenomenon of the star of Bethlehem and what was it's actual purpose?

Laurie Atkins is a graduate of the U of T Conservatory. She has received scholarships and awards for singing and composing. In the mid 1980's she began a vibrant concert and recording ministry and has produced several musical dramas based on Bible and historical characters.
